Forbidden Science 3: On The Trail Of Hidden Truths, The Journals Of Jacques Vallee 1980-1989

Synopsis

REMEMBERING IS THE DUTY OF THOSE WHO LIVE IN EXCEPTIONAL TIMES The 1980s were a pivotal time in the development of venture capital that led to great innovations throughout the world. As recounted in this third volume of journals, Jacques Vallee found his passion in this world, while he witnessed with concern the increasing manipulation and disinformation that discouraged rational research into ufology. But he persisted in his first-hand UFO investigations in the US, Europe, and South America, and here strips from the historical record the secrecy behind which research into the paranormal was being conducted.

"When I first read Jacques Vallee, I knew immediately that I had found a writer who had something important to teach us about the history of Western esotericism, about the truths of traditional folklore, about the mysterious attraction of modern science fiction, and about the reality of paranormal phenomena." —â• Professor Jeffrey Kripal, Rice University "After Jacques Vallee, you will never again think the same way about UFOs" —â• Utne Reader

JACQUES VALLEE holds a master's degree in astrophysics and a PhD in computer science. The subject of UFOs first attracted his attention as an astronomer in Paris. He subsequently became a close associate of Project Blue Book's J. Allen Hynek and has written several books on the UFO enigma. He is presently a venture capitalist living in San Francisco.

Excellent book! The book is semi-autobiographical, because it is largely based upon notes that Vallee regularly made in his personal journal during the period 1980-1989, along with excerpts from notes that he sent to his wife while he was traveling, interspersed periodically with his reflections penned in the present day as he looks back on his early notes. When it comes to strange science, fringe science, and the topic of UFOs and anomalous events, I have always held Vallee in very high esteem, because he thinks very clearly and he is very grounded, and also because his primary hypothesis regarding the origins of UFO and anomalous events phenomena is pretty much the same as mine, namely, that they fall into the paranormal realm, and that the UFOs, Men In Black and other anomalies are essentially what the Tibetan Buddhists have, for thousands of years, called tulpas (sometimes referenced as tulkus), that is temporary manifestations in our world of things from an alternate dimensional world or from the astral plane; this is sometimes referenced as a temporary appearance of interdimensional beings/things due to some degree of paranormal intervention (often on the part of persons who are present at the event, and who have, perhaps unknown to themselves, a certain degree of paranormal psi abilities. In any case, I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the author for having taken the time and energy to compile and edit this book, and to publish it. I appreciate it very much, and it was a very fun read! He is also a good writer, and a good social commentator. For those who may not be familiar with this series, this book is/was the third book in Vallee's series of books on his experiences in the realms of strange science, fringe science, alchemy, ormus, alternative health, metaphysics, paranormal research, and UFO & anomalies research, and it covers his memories of his experiences in these fields between 1980 and the end of 1980. Volume 1 of the series deals with his experiences and memories in these realms from 1957 through the end of 1969, and Volume 2 deals with his recollections of his experiences during the period 1970-1979. An other large reason why I personally found the book to be of particular interest because I had some interactions during that time period (1980 through the end of 1989) with at least two of the persons whom Vallee mentions repeatedly in his recollections. One of those persons was UFO/Anomalies/Paranormal topics author John Keel, and the other was the then-famed and at-times-infamous Dr. Andrija Puharich, the MD/psychiatrist turned strange science/paranormal researcher who had semi-stalked me -- as I have recounted in a tale recounted on one of my websites -- for a while in the early and mid-1980s under the mistaken belief (given to him largely by his favorite channelled entities, including the Council of Nine) that I was in possession of numerous long-lost secret Nikola Tesla documents and Tesla technical secrets regarding "free
