Joan A. Price is professor emeritus in philosophy and religious studies at Mesa Community College. She taught philosophy at the undergraduate level for 35 years.

Good for high school students with no background in the subject, though the author presents things a bit clumsily and makes inaccurate statements and generalizations at times.... Overall, it's a "reader's digest" summary of the history of philosophy, suitable for a cursory overview of the subject....

Thank you, Joan A. Price, for this excellent intro to the subject. Well-organized, Glossary, bibliography, notes, index. Extremely helpful for high school, college, and adults like me.
