My IVF Journal just arrived and I can't wait to start using it for my cycle!! I have already been able to fill in so many details about my schedule, medications and clinic and feel totally ready to get started. I can't believe how much I didn't know about my clinic and my treatment. My insurance doesn't cover IVF so the section on budgeting and tracking expenses is really helpful. Can't wait to use the Mind and Body section too. It all looks great so far!

Book is practically brand new! I was skeptical about purchasing a "used" journal-type book, but I am glad I did. It's actually quite interesting to read and very helpful to fill out. Great book. Excellent seller.

I like this but I wish I would have seen it at the beginning of my journey. After dealing with infertility for 5 years I knew a majority of the stuff in here.

I have not written in my IVF journal. I hope to do so in 2 months. Treatments have been post-poned. But I am very excited I ordered this book.

Fast shipping, item was as described.

Fantastic book! Written by someone who has personal experience and it acts as a check list

This has been a wonderful resource for BOTH me and my husband. He likes the information that the book has about tax info and other things while I like the places I can jot down notes on the procedures and appointments that I have had. Thank you for having such a wonderful tool for such a trying event in a persons life. There is also great (emotional) information on how to expect to feel!

Excellent! Fast shipping! Just as described!
