MISSING MEMORIES (A Quilting Cozy Book 8)

Synopsis

A friend has gone missing, and Sarah is told to leave it to the professionals – the Chicago Police Department, the FBI, and the U.S. Marshal’s office. But Sarah refuses to accept their assumptions about her friend’s identity. Missing Memories is the 8th book in the Quilting Cozy series and includes an abundance of quilting, the joys and concerns of Sarah’s friends and family, and a new charity project for the quilt club. What is a Fidget Quilt? These little lap quilts, often made as a charity project by quilters, are designed to soothe the restlessness and agitation of patients suffering from Alzheimer’s. They include items to handle: things to open and close; things to touch and feel. They feature textures and shapes designed to keep fidgety fingers occupied.

Customer Reviews

Carol Dean Jones is on good form in this, the 8th book in the Quilting Cozy mystery series. A intriguing mystery (I don't want to give the plot away!) is skiffily interwoven with Sarah, Sophie and their friends working on fidget quilts for Alzheimers sufferers. The book also continues to explore the developing relationships between the various characters and is insightful on the subject of modern family relationships, trust and openness. In short: a great read, I read it in one sitting, I just couldn't put it down!

This was a very hard book to put down because I wanted to find out what happened next. There is mystery, danger, decisions to make. It is a very good book

I love the mischief these gals get into and enjoy their escape. They love each other. More of that is needed.

Good Book, enjoyed it.

I was so happy when I found out that Carol Dean Jones had written another book!! Then, when I started reading it and realized that it continued the story that she had started about 7 or 8 books ago!! I love her books. I am never bored, always waiting to get back to the book!! I hope that she continues to write. I watch for her books all the time.

Carol Dean Jones does it again. Her books are the perfect balance between character count and plot. I didn't catch who did it until the end of this one. The suspense kept me guessing..

I enjoyed reading this story. She had some details about their project of making fidget quilts that I may want to use and get a group together to work on these little quilts. Well written story. Thank you

Good mystery, great characters and very well written. I appreciate the references to quilting being correct and good proof-reading.
