American Arbitration Association and the Better Business Bureau.

I can't believe I had to buy this new edition for the second half of my business law class. Not only were there typos and errors everywhere, some of the actual material was wrong. It is poorly organized, poorly edited and too dumbed down. If this is your assigned book, petition to have a different text selected for your class. Thank goodness I had an excellent professor.

Smells like cat piss, has water damage (probably cat piss), has bits of crumbs? probably cat food, this book is hella sad shape. Pages are about to fall the hell out. This is ridiculous. 150$ id expect to be able to use it. Swear if i tried to return it in this exact shape they would tell me its in too rough of shape.

Need it for college class, damn book is expensive !!!! Books is simple and well organized. Questions at the end of chapter is a bit stupid since I ran into questions that are not covered that particular chapter, good thing those are "opinion" questions, and there's always google to get you out of a jam. Soft cover... books are so floppy..... All key terms are defined for you on the side. Makes studying a lot easier.

Not in a good shape. Looks like some water damage. Writing in book makes hard to read the sentence it covers. Food pieces on some pages. It will do but could have been in better shape

The reasons for meeting expectations is because this is the text required for the course, and the delivery time was quick. Renting is the best option if your not buying. Very economical.

Great to learn from I took in alot

The book cover was ripped and part way through the book the binding is falling apart. There was no highlighting or graffiti in the pages.

In great condition
