David Stott, South India-born and raised in the vibrant suburbs of Peterborough, writer and photographer acquired his taste for India in the womb. David now splits his time between India and his adopted home in vibrant suburban Sydney, where the pace of life is such that he occasionally has to pinch himself to make sure he's awake.

We just returned from Rajasthan. This is a great book. Up to date with useful information. It is a slim book compared to other India travel guides making it easy to keep in a daypack for reference while we were out and about;

Handy reference for our upcoming tour.
