"The best option | Color photos, maps, and diagrams bring the place to life." — The Philadelphia Inquirer

It is simply the best guide out there for Sardinia. There are few other guides. However, the eyewitness guide does an excellent job.

This is a very good guide to Sardinia. Just right for tucking in a suitcase or carrying on for inflight reading.

Thank you for this as a used book. It came in great shape and gave me an excellent overview of the Island. The beaches look fantastic. We shall see in person.

i love these guides. The print is quite small for us older folks but the maps and images are lovely. great for dreaming.

Last night I cut up this very good guidebook (it has an index, by the way--see my recent review of "The Rough Guide Book to Sicily") in preparation for my thirty-day tour of part of Italy; Sardinia; Sicily; and Valetta, the capital of the Republic of Malta. This guidebook has a large section on the history of the island, and everything else you would expect.

Wonderful guide book illustrating the complexities and uniqueness of the Sardinia landscape. Easy to read and great photos. Get it!

ok but a bit out of date. Could have been combined with other near by islands Interesting reading & reporting so far. Will have a more realistic review on my return.
