Indiana From The Air

Synopsis

"Indiana from the Air" is a unique presentation of the state, from north to south and east to west, from the Ohio River to Lake Michigan and the Wabash to Richmond. Ninety-seven aerial views provide a new look at the state's natural areas, unique landforms, cities, towns, rural life, industry, architecture, the impact of the seasons and of humanity, the cut of a plowed field or a parking lot, an eagle's-eye view of an eagle...and much more. Many of the images go beyond representation to suggest larger, more spiritual concerns.

Customer Reviews

This book presents an aerial perspective of several landscapes in Indiana in an effort to take a brief inventory of the state as the new millennia approaches.

Richard Fields turns a fine eye on Indiana landscapes, architecture, and people. In so doing, he gives us new eyes.

great and good experience. Best investment ever at a great price love it . very fast, receive it next day. Kelly needs it ,

This is a great book for any Hoosier or lover of the Hoosier State. The photographs are both interesting and beautiful. I proudly keep this book on my coffee table so that friends and guests can see and understand why I love and talk about Indiana so much. Whenever I'm feeling a little homesick, all I have to do is open this book and I'm "back home again in Indiana".

this book says it all about indiana. the photography is simply breathtaking and put together marvelously! i would recommend this book to anyone who lives in or likes indiana or enjoys looking at beautiful artwork.
