"A winner, a lavishly romantic lark, brimming over with style, intelligence and flashing wit." -- Peter Travers, Rolling Stone"[When Harry Met Sally ...] will go down as the classic of 1989. I have always loved the movie When Harry Met Sally and watch it about once a year. It's nice to have this book by the writer. The dialogue is clever, the characters are realistic and the humor is wonderful. We all know a Harry or Sally! It's a great romantic comedy by a talented writer. It is great to have the book to refer to if you want to look over a certain part from the movie in detail. It is short, but that's the whole story!

The dialogue sings with comedy, life lessons and ultimately, love. It does sound partially improvised but in a way that works. Very enjoyable. I read many details I missed watching the film.

I watched HBO's Everything Is Copy and then jumped on and started buying Nora's words. So smart, so funny.

Reading the screenplay was almost as good as watching the movie. . .almost. I found myself saying the words to myself before I even read them; I have seen the movie countless times and never tire of watching it.I was fascinated to learn the history of how the movie was conceptualized. This alone makes it well worth the price. It's a must have for fans of the movie.Rest in peace, Nora Ephron. Your legacy will live on forever!When Harry Met Sally. . .

Nora Ephron was an incredible writer. I enjoy reading her books because they are a fun way to relate to the many sides to being a woman.When Harry Met Sally is a wonderful collaboration between Nora and Rob Reiner.

This is her novelized version of the screenplay that she and Rob Reiner wrote. She explains what they were thinking and how they decided on the course of the story. I loved reading it and wished it were longer.

The first great modern romantic-comedy. Ever since this one, every other one has tried to capture its wit, charm, fun, and romance. They mostly fall short. Can't recommend or love this script enough.

Of all movie genres I would have to say that Romantic Comedies are my favorite. And of all Romantic Comedies, WHEN HARRY MET SALLY is by far the best ever. Two people never hated each other more in the beginning. Then we soon learn that two people were never more right for each other. If you haven't seen it yet, you are in for a treat.
