Lust In The Caribbean

Synopsis

On a ship traversing the dangerous seas in 1710, surrendering to the swashbuckling pirates of The Manhunter will yield the most pleasurable of outcomes. Thomas Treadwell takes to the high seas as a sailor on a merchant ship as he searches for freedom, a difficult thing to find for a man such as himself in the 18th century. While he must hide his most essential self in the daylight, his forbidden desires are allowed brief tastes of secret passion under the cover of night and with faceless partners. It's not the freedom he'd hoped to one day find, but it was better than most realities for a catamite. Caught in the taboo act aboard the Virtue, a pious ship captained by the sanctimonious Captain Temperance Stone, Thomas faces death for his crime of finding pleasure with a fellow sailor. But his fate changes in an instant when the Virtue is caught and boarded by the notorious Manhunter, a pirate ship purportedly manned by men just like him, men who desire men. The ship of criminal misfits offers him safe harbor as a guest, and what was always forbidden is accepted and celebrated. Celebrated heartily and with many of his newfound sailing companions. But when he stumbles upon their mysterious secret, passions and suspicions are aroused. Thomas must decide whether to join their ranks for good, making him a criminal in his own eyes. Lust in the Caribbean delivers sexy scenes and high adventure, transporting readers back to a far away place and time. Dive deep and experience the journey right alongside Thomas, as he discovers the meaning of acceptance, loyalty and the rule of love over law.

Can you imagine being in time where being in love can carry a death sentence? In this time an place we meet a sailor who feels any attraction towards a man he could be put to death. Thomas is caught in a privee with another man in an intimate embrace. Will Thomas face his death ? Or will a stranger save him ? Will Thomas save himself from the strict spiteful world ? Can Love overcome haters? You will not regret reading this story of love an learning to love yourself.

When I first started to read this back I was so happy to find Historical novel involving men with men and also with some paranormal included. This book also gave me a glance into what happened to men who were found to "dally" with other men. This story followed Thomas who at last learns to accept himself and can find happiness. But of course there is danger and some sadness included. Which for me makes a book much more interesting. Very worth reading....I loved it!!!!

Pirates, Werebears, Werewolves, & other creature all take part in this great adventure. Loved the details of ship sailing & fighting, & yes lots of free m/m sexing going on. Enjoyed the twists & turns in the story, strong characters and of course, the HEA! A fun, sexual, historical read that I didn't want to end!

I'll say it again. Wow. What a amazing read that was. Noah has done it again this book had me on the edge from start finish I haven't had a book keep me so engaged before like this one did. I really thought Thomas was going to be with the captain very good surprise there. Amazing book hook line and dinner there wonderfully written. Thanks Noah and I hope this one gets to #1 were it deserves to be

This book was very good, though I do wish there has been less meanness and vulgarity to the gay men, even some of it from each other, and more caring love, more romance. I'm glad that it, eventually, ended well, though. Great job, Noah! :)

This was absolutely wonderful, I loved it. There was so much adventure, sexy scenes, romance and suspense, mystery of the sea! Unbelievable, that I'm sorry the story had to end. So many thanks, Honey Bee

The Manhunter! Noted for its giant golden hmm hmm shining out from the sea. Everything from seafaring werewolves to mermaids... all with an insatiable appetite for pirate booty. Great story line. Great characters and adventure.

As always Noah Harris did not disappoint. The story twisted & turned & held my attention from start to finish. Pirates & Shifters, unlike anything I have read before.
