My fiancée and I are set to be married on September 2015. Planning for a wedding is definitely a dreadful task. At first, it's fun and exciting, but as the days go on, we're having a lot of choices and of course, the amount of money we need to have to pay whatever we have chosen. So much planning to do, so little time. However, with this book, it has helped us do everything swiftly and surely. I love this book. I actually recommend this book to all of the couples planning to marry. Now, everything's set and we only need to wait for the wedding day.

Planning a wedding can be one of the most stressful things to do. While it should be a happy and exciting time, balancing everyone's opinions can be extremely challenging. This book provides such excellent information on steps to take to make sure that you have the day that you want without costing an incredible amount of money. With advice on picking venues, wedding favors, cakes and flowers. I definitely recommend this book for anyone in the wedding planning process.
