Customer Reviews

Very disappointing. This "book" is nothing more than a list of the top tourist attractions in Rome. No additional insights or helpful information provided. Don't waste your money on this.

This was poorly written and held very little information. Not even worth the $2.99 I paid.

Little substance to this book.

Not enough information

I don't agree with the other person who posted a review. I think the book has enough info in it. It's just supposed to be a short guide that lets you know some cool places to make sure you see while you are in the area. I would recommend it.

I liked the way it tells you exactly where to go, how to get there (options), how much it costs and she builds in lunch and dinner ideas. Easy to follow!!!

You get what you pay for. I read this for free on Kindle Unlimited, and I did not find it helpful, enlightening or well written. Don't bother with this one.
