Tales Of A Fourth Grade Nothing (Fudge Series Book 1)

Synopsis

Living with his little brother, Fudge, makes Peter Hatcher feel like a fourth grade nothing. Whether Fudge is throwing a temper tantrum in a shoe store, smearing smashed potatoes on walls at Hamburger Heaven, or scribbling all over Peter's homework, he's never far from trouble. He's a two-year-old terror who gets away with everything—and Peter's had enough. When Fudge walks off with Dribble, Peter's pet turtle, it's the last straw. Peter has put up with Fudge too long. How can he get his parents to pay attention to him for a change?

Customer Reviews

This is one of my favorite books from the first time I read it to my sons until I reread it as a senior citizen. Oh that we all could see the world through the eyes of a boy this age. If you want a good laugh this is a must read.

This was a required summer reading for my 9 year old son. He loved it!

Loved as a child and now my son is enjoying.

A humorous story that transcends across generations as a nine year old boy tries to find his place within his family as well as the world around him, navigating a younger brother who challenges him at every turn. Still as fun today as it was when I was nine.

My Grandson loves the book!
