An Earl And A Wedding

Synopsis

After a disastrous first encounter with the Earl of Collingford, will Lady Virginia ever win his heart? England 1818 When Lady Virginia Croft is invited to her cousin's wedding, she isn't looking for love. Her heart is broken from a tragic past, and she is just coming out of mourning. However, she would do anything for her dear cousin, Lady Jane. Arriving at the Duke of Carvingham's estate for the wedding, Lady Virginia has a disastrous first encounter with the Duke's heir, the Earl of Collingford. He finds her annoying and childish, and she finds him rude and bad-tempered. Events conspire to bring Lady Virginia and Lord Collingford together, but will he be able to break with tradition and follow his heart? Will Lady Virginia see through his façade? If you love clean, romantic tales of love from the Regency-era, you'll love An Earl and a Wedding. AUTHOR'S NOTE: This is a clean, short read, stand-alone story. A collection of additional short bonus stories are included.

Customer Reviews

There are many different stories to read here and they were all pretty good!! Not just one century to read about but a few to enjoy!

I really like Caroline Johnson. Her books are realistic. I like a book that the characters are real with real problems.

The stories were ok BUT we're even shorter than a magazine story. Was looking for something longer in length. But ok

Great story line...Finished it in 2 readings! Thanks for a good read.

fantastic Read

This is a collection of very short stories. Finished the first one 8% into the book. Unless I am missing something? I was expecting a full length novel. Started out promising but resolution in a flash.

When I search for a regency romance book, I don't expect it to be a collection and include a train trip to a ranch in COLORADO!
