Customer Reviews

Gary Lewis has managed to distill a lifetime of fishing savvy into 128 information-crammed pages. -- Jim Witty, The Bulletin, July 16, 2003
Lewis has written one of the most useful regional fishing books to be published this year... -- The Reel News, September 2003

Gary Lewis is an outdoor writer and photographer who makes his home in Oregon. He has fished across much of the West. Born and raised in the Northwest, he has been walking river trails for as long as he can remember. He is the author of Hunting Oregon, and Deer Hunting, has won awards for his newspaper columns, and has written numerous magazine articles.

Excellent.

Alright if I buy a book I don't want there to be ads in it! This book looks like it has valuable information, but if I buy a book (for close to 20 dollars) I figure I am already paying for the information. Glad I looked at it at the library before I bought it.

If your home waters are in Oregon/Washington or if you are planning a future trip to the Pacific Northwest, this book is a must-read. I enjoyed the author's style of writing and am impressed with his knowledge of freshwater species. Enjoy!
