Simply awesome. The production quality and acting is top notch too. I plan on buying every album even though there is over 60 of them (an album is about 12-14 or so episodes). The message that each of these stories have will remain with the kids forever, and is an excellent story that reinforces what you are already teaching your kids. I first heard the shows on the radio about 20 years ago (I was 17 then), and always new that I would like to provide them for my kids someday. I kind of forgot about the show off and on since having kids, but now that we have longer car rides it was definitely the time to get them.

I bought this for my 5 and 7 year old but I felt like the content is maybe a bit for older kids (9 year olds). I'm just really picky with what I let them listen to. We will save it though for when they are a bit older

Great stories that end with a Bible scripture.The stories are about 30 mins are so long, with varying themes.I brought this for my two boys to listen to as they are winding down for bed.I'm 30 now but when I was a kid my mom would sit me in front of the radio and I would listen to Adventures in Odyssey.I love the moral that are represent in the stories.The shipping was quick (2days) and the price is fair (cheaper then buying it in a store)

I have a 6 yo and 3 yo. I bought this for a car trip hoping my kids would get into it. The radio theater is great. The lessons are great. But the subject matter of the first disk was unrelatable to my younger children. I think kids around 9 yo and older would be more interested and have more context for the content. I still use them, though and look forward to getting more to share with my kiddos.

This is a classic album of some of the earliest stories from the Adventures in Odyssey. You meet Connie Kendall for the first time here and many other stories. Listening to this album brings happy flashbacks of childhood memories. They will keep even young children entertained and pensive for hours and hours of car rides or other time where the parent can either focus on other tasks or can get to answer some really good questions that kids sometimes have about life. I highly recommend.

There is nothing quite like the imagination a child's mind can create from these uplifting stories. When I was about 9 years old, my Father purchased the cassettes for me and to this day I absolutely love them. I am so glad that I was able to purchase these for my 6 year old.

Kinda like the old days (when radio theater was big... The Shadow etc), fun stories that kids can relate to and yet there is a message that comes across without being preachy. I also like that everyone gets to use their imagination - great sound effects but still let you picture in your mind what is happening. My 8 year old son asks to listen to these when ever we are in the car... even just waiting for the school bus or driving into town. Also allows me to ask him questions - "what did you think about how that boy was acting?" "What could he/she have done differently?"

We are big fans of Adventures in Odyssey however this first one shows how far they have come with their storylines. Not our favorite but it sets the tone for some great character development
