Customer Reviews

This issue was definitely a little different than most, but I liked the slightly less light hearted story in this one. Even if it did deal with Archie and Veronica's relationship, which I've never been the biggest fan of (I'm still Team Betty when it comes to Archie). It was nice seeing Jughead stick up for his best friend though, and sort of playing matchmaker with Veronica and Archie. It was like Jug was the voice of reason for them this issue, and I loved it! As for what Veronica's dad tried to pull with that speed dating mess of a lie. My goodness! I know the Lodge family can be undermining and deceptive at times, but that was just down right ridiculous. How could a parent ever put their child through that?! If you want her to be happy, just let her be with the boys she's already with. He's good to her, and does everything to try and make her happy. Even sometimes to a fault for him. And then there was that ending! I was waiting to see what was going on with Jason and Cheryl, and when that bombshell dropped; I need more answers like now! What did it have to be a cliffhanger ending? All in all I'd give this issue a 4.5/5 stars. I really enjoyed it! :)
