Worth The Wrestle

Synopsis

Why can't I seem to conquer weaknesses that plague me? "How do I know if I'm receiving revelation?" "Will the Lord forgive me after what I've done?" "Why can't we seem to get ahead financially even though we faithfully pay our tithing?" "What if the Church's position on gay marriage bothers me?" Those are just a handful of the countless questions Sheri Dew has heard people ask over the years. "May I answer these questions," she writes, "and any questions you may have, by posing a different question: Are you willing to engage in the wrestle? In an ongoing spiritual wrestle?" In Worth the Wrestle, Sheri examines the process of asking good questions—whether those questions be doctrinal, procedural, historical, or intensely personal—and learning how to get answers. She demonstrates how to live by faith while seeking greater light and knowledge. And she testifies of principles that are worth wrestling for and of understanding that can be gained in no other way.

Customer Reviews

Good book, well worth the read.

Amazing author and fabulous book!

Great book -- always love Sheri Dew's work.

An amazing read. Fresh and timely subject matter. Bought two more for gifts, (from Costco. They are $10.99 at Costco.

Great author... great message!

very thought provoking.

Excellent book.

Great to see a book directed towards members who are less than active. Very helpful advice. Well written. Unfortunately the people who need to read this book the most are highly unlikely to read it.
