OMG! This is in my top five plays of all time! It blew me away! The protagonist is clear-the stakes are clear-his purpose is clear -- in short, it could be used as an example of effective play structure. The way that tap dance is used as a metaphor for jazz is powerful. I wish I had been able to see this on Broadway. Will have to settle for YouTube!

Has handwritten notes in pencil along side the borders, as stated. But I don't have a problem with it, the notes can either help or hinder, if I choose to read them. Thank you.
