York City Guide: Spanish (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

Minster, and loved by visitors from around the world. This small city, built up layer by layer since Roman times by successive communities, has a rich history. The narrow streets, little alleyways and connecting passages with evocative names call out to be. Use this guide to explore York - encircled by ancient walls, its heart the historic stone explored, as do the city walls with their wider view. This historic scene is matched by 21st-century essentials - shops, theatres, cinemas, galleries, restaurants, pubs and cafes. This title is available in six languages. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.
