This a favorite with my two year old and my 2 1/2 year old nephew! It's a quick easy read that teaches basic manners. We've read it over and over again until they've pretty much memorized it.

It's set the standard for good behavior and encouraged them to strive to be "the polite elephant" in everyday life situations.

I purchased this as an addition to an elephant themed basket for a baby shower. My toddler loves this book and I think it helps to open dialogue about good manners. The illustrations are also very sweet. And, let's be honest, can one really go wrong with Richard Scarry?!

A wonderful little book that is not too long to teach my little one about manners and the importance of being polite. She always looks forward to reading this delightful book!

My son and I have been reading this book for about 4 months now. He loves elephants, and really enjoys this book too! simple drawings and nice calm colors. Its a staple in our bedtime or nap routine! Sweet book.
