Since 1987 when she first discovered colored pencils as a fine art medium, Ann Kullberg has let her passion for the medium guide her life. Ann has write numerous instruction books, founded the first monthly colored pencil magazine, created instructional materials and held hundreds of colored pencil portrait workshops throughout in 44 US states, as well as in Canada, Japan, the UK, Australia and on cruises. Ann lives near Seattle and enjoys every sunny day the Pacific Northwest bestows. Ann is the author of the following North Light books: Colored Pencil Portraits Step by Step Capturing Soft Realism in Colored Pencil Colored Pencil Secrets to Success Other publications edited by Ann Kullberg: CP Treasures Volumes I and II and III Ann Kullberg's COLOR Magazine CP Cats: A Complete Guide to Wild & Domestic Cats in Colored Pencil CP Horses: A Complete Colored Pencil Guide to Horses

I wish there were more "how to" in it. It's great to look at the photos of the pet drawings.

I was expecting more instruction and how to's not just tips or techniques. But beautiful artwork

Anything that helps with my artwork is a great find, and this book is super!

Beautiful book! But I was hoping for more step-by-step instructions.

This book is for you if you are craving new ideas and suggestions for how to render your four legged loved ones! 80 artists share their tips for rendering life like animal fur. There's a valuable tidbit on every page. I have a shelf full of CP books and I may get one or two useful tips from each but in Cats and Dogs this is true for almost every page. You can't go wrong with this book if you have a furry friend begging to be remembered for posterity.

I LOVE this book! Beautiful high quality illustrations and wonderful colored pencil instruction from talented and successful artists. I've been reading and re-reading it, there is so much to learn. I love that it includes work by many artists, it covers many styles and gives ideas for things I would like to try. So many times I see a beautiful work of art and wonder, "how did they do that?" This book answers that question.

What a wonderful book! If you are a colored pencil artist or if you just love dogs and cats, either way you will love this book. The primary part of the book shows how extremely talented artists have produced colored-pencil paintings of many different kinds of dogs and cats. There is even information there about what pencils they used; what drawing surface they prefer; and much more. My advice - "Check It Out!"

This is a beautifully done book full of amazing and surprising animal portraits. If you like animals or have a desire to do their portraits, you will find a treasure trove of knowledge here. Wonderful ideas and tips on capturing your favorite pets by artists from all over the world. I just love to flip to a new page and find out how these artists approach their work. Another great book from Ann Kullberg. Well done!
