The Earl Finds A Bride (Fairy Tales Across Time Book 1)

Synopsis

First in a series of fairy tale time travel romances called Fairy Tales Across Time! What does a fairy godmother do when she has too much time on her hands? She must meddle in the affairs of others, of course! So she discovers the Earl of St. John when he encounters a strange little woman one evening at a ball who prophesies that he shall not, from that night forward, leave his castle until love finds him. Scoff as he might at her eccentricity, her prediction comes true, and the earl finds himself trapped, unable to venture beyond the boundaries of his estate. Mary Palmer, a twenty-first century lover of fairy tales, finds an old book of unfamiliar stories, and she dives into the first tale before bed one night. The story of a lonely earl trapped in his castle by the curse of a strange little woman captures her imagination. How can the earl find love if he cannot break the curse that binds him to his castle? How can Mary resist the compelling draw of an old book of fairy tales that draws her back in time? And where is a fairy godmother when one needs her?
