This book covers the Tampa/St. Petersburg area like no other guide book I've read. It's well-organized; whatever I was looking for - restaurant, attractions - was easy to find. Additionally, I enjoyed the insights and odd tidbits about the area. The maps were especially helpful and easy to use. Highly recommended!

Page one of this travel guide begins with an erroneous orientation of the cities of Tampa and St. Petersburg. We read "Tampa, on the west side of Tampa Bay" and "St. Petersburg, on the east side of Tampa Bay" when in fact the opposite is true. A taveler must then question the accuracy of other information presented in this travel quide.
