Customer Reviews

"In this reviewer's experience of using children's Bibles with his own children and grandchildren, he has not seen any that are more attractive and delightful than this one. It will enchant any child, Jewish or Christian."
— Bible Editions & Versions (Bible Editions & Versions) "A Winner."

As Bible Editions and Versions notes in their April 2005 issue: "In this reviewer's experience of using children's Bibles with his own children and grandchildren, he has not seen any that are more attractive and delightful than this one. It will enchant any child, Jewish or Christian."

I bought this bible for my grandson that has began reading now, I was delighted with the graphics and colors of the book but I was disappointed and annoyed when Adam referred in confusion to God as "yes sir?... err ma'am? ma'am? err sir?" There is no question that Adam and Eve referred to God as the Father and gender being a male. I know today's transgenders are persecuting bible publishers about the homosexual word be removed from bibles but to to bring more confusion as to call God ma'am or sir? is beyond me and I'm glad I'm there with my grandson to correct this false assumption in regards to God's gender. I believe all versions of bibles are clear on what his gender is. Since I'm just started reading with my grandson, I have to be more careful on potentially more errors in it. I was going to give this bible a 5 stars but on this experience I settle for 3 stars.

I was looking for a Jewish version of the Action Bible. This is not that, but it is a comic book version of the bible. My 7 and 9 year old boys read it without prompting and almost look guilty if I happen to catch them in the act of reading it. ;)

very good and age appropriate

Great seller and as advertised. Big picture Torah stories without the details. Ok, but kids were wanting something more story-like, and felt like they were being talked "down" to -- better for younger kids in some ways.

I teach in a weekday Hebrew school. Kids LOVE this book and most have ready well beyond where we asked them to read!

Loved it. Hope my grandkids do too. We'll find out come Christmas.

Just a little bit to much like reading a comic book but it gets the point across to my grand kids, they are enjoying it

This book was excellent. The pictures are great, the stories are well written. I use it to teach a kids class at church.
