The designs in this book are of interior designs of rooms. They are not a montage of design elements but instead show you the full look of the room. While they are interior designs, they are more than that. The designs are inside settings that appear to be a lived in and functional room within a house. I have other interior design books which focus on the elements of design. This book shows the function of the room. The designs show a good range of traditional, contemporary and modern rooms. The rooms are from all areas of the house: living rooms, bedrooms, dining rooms, kitchens and many other specialized areas (playroom, study, etc.) The designs are very detailed and some contained intricate and small areas to color. I suggest using color medium with a very small point for these elements. I don't think that crayons can be sharpened to as fine a point as needed. I like ultra-fine points. While you can have access to .PDFs when you purchase this book, my review is based on the book as it is received from . That way you will know what the pages look like and how they accept color. I like that the publisher provides the digital version as well so you can choose the paper you wish to use and/or to color the pictures as many times as you choose. This is what I found while coloring in this book and testing the paper with my coloring medium: 25 Designs x 2 each (total of 50 pages) based on full room interior designs Paper is typical of CreateSpace: white, thin, slightly rough and non-perforated. The back of the page is printed black. The designs do not merge into the binding. There is a heavy framing line at the outer edges of the design to give the project a more finished look, especially for framing. There is a slight shadowing effect to the framing line which gives the image an almost 3D effect. Glue Binding (there is room to cut the pages out if you choose to do so.) Though you cannot see the bleed-through easily due to the back of the page being printed in black, I recommend the use of a blotter page when working in this book. I use a page of card stock or several sheets of heavyweight paper under my working page. It keeps seeping ink and marring dents from ruining the pages below. Alcohol-based markers bleed through the page quickly. Water-based markers bleed through in spots. Gel pens and India ink pens leave shadows on back of the page. India ink can bleed through if you apply heavily or multiple coats. Coloring Pencils work well with this paper. I found that I could layer the same color for deeper pigment or multiple colors and I could blend easily using a blending stick. I tested both oil and wax based pencils. I also found that hard lead pencils leave dents through the paper.

The pages in Interior Designs are detailed in such a way as to be rewarding and relaxing to color. (Not so detailed as to be overwhelming. I just prefer pages that are not busy and repetitive.) The pages have a wonderful realistic detail to them, yet can still be enjoyed by children. There are two copies of each page, and upon confirmed purchase, you will receive a code so that you may get a free digital copy to download. Which is a fabulous offer especially if the ladies and girls (and men or boys of course) in your family enjoy spending time with each other coloring, talking and laughing!

Which we do and there are a lot of us. Each page in the book its self-has a black backing, that I honestly had never seen before. However, I find that I like it, as it gives a certain elegance to the feel of the pages and it seems to enhance the color of the pages when you color them. I am very pleased with this item as are the other coloring addicted folks in my family. We will happily be purchasing more Adult Coloring books from Jade Summer/.

So-So coloring book. The pages are very thin and sort of rough which can make coloring with anything other than crayons difficult. I usually like to use colored pencils, but I had to be very careful not to press to hard or the paper would rip. There are much better adult coloring books out there.

The reason I have given this 3 stars is that there are numerous repeat pages of the same pictures to color, I would say at least half dozen.

A good book to let your imagination run away with different concepts on interior designs.This should give someone ideas on how they would like tosee there home decorated with color and style.

Really love this book. i felt like an interior decorator! You will really enjoy this one! Pictures are repeated and you can see how you would do it differently.

I love to go in houses that are for sale and just look at the rooms. This coloring book is going to be so much fun to color. Can't wait to get to get started.

Nice book. I haven't had time to color but is nice for the money. I enjoy Jade Summers' Books. She has a large variety of books of different catagories
