I am soooo happy to have another copy of this book after losing my original in a terrible loaning accident. The stories are in a different order than the film, but that won't remotely impact your enjoyment of the wonderful comic from the fantastic and spooky anthology classic: Creepshow. That kid on the front? That's little Joe Hill (Stephen King's oldest son, and the guy who wrote Heart Shaped Box and Horns). I'm not noticing any differences between the reissue and the original--but I haven't seen my copy in some time.

Great!

This is hilarious and has a few King stories with slightly gruesome old school comics. A classic reprint. Two of the stories cracked me up with their boozy characters meeting their supernatural demise.

It's always enjoyable reading Stephen King books and this one is no exception.

It was my fault that it was not my favorite. I had read these before and I thought that they were new stories. So I was not impressed!

Needed this for my King collection. Beautiful.

Art work, who taught them.

Fun to read!!
