Highlander's Prize

Synopsis

He starts out as her prisoner, slave to a Princess. But it's not long before he turns the tables and she belongs to him. Malcolm is sentenced to death after being captured during battle. He is one of the few Scottish Lords fighting in the crusades in the Far East, to support his English Grandfather's campaign. When the beautiful, veiled woman sees him trudging to his death, the handsome Scot catches her eye. She claims him as her own, saving him from execution. Princess Kalila is exquisitely lovely, but temperamental. She is bored and lonely, with nothing to entertain her but her handsome slave. Sparks fly once she realizes that Malcolm's desire for her is a perfect way to amuse herself. Once Malcolm learns of the danger she is in, he swears to protect her, no matter the cost. When her father the King is murdered during a coup, Malcolm helps to secret her away. But the shoe is now on the other foot. Kalila belongs to him now, and he'll have his sensual revenge on her. This book was previously released under a different title. It has been expanded and rewritten.

Customer Reviews

This a fun story that is good for a summer day read, but very little depth to it. Overall ok.

What a fun surprise this book was for me. Not being my normal type of book I tried it and loved it! My attention was kept the whole time reading not only at home but in the car, at a car show and sneaking it out while out to eat too:) I enjoyed the characters, the storyline and emotions of the story very much. I felt a lot of emotion during this book and glad I took a chance on something out of my norm! After voluntarily reading a Arc of this book I plan to get some others from Calyope and read them because this was a true pleasure!

Great historical themed story with characters who have amazing chemistry with each other! The book has some great detail and is written well! Loved Kalila's Character! Always great having a strong female character! Some suspense and a great ending! I voluntarily read and reviewed this as an ARC

My favorite out of the bunch so far. Maybe because the dude not a huge overall pushes jerk the whole time. I had my concerns there for a minute. But just a minute. He seemed to genuinely care for her and her for him. Exciting. Drama. And love. Overall a great read.

Highlander's Prize by Calyope Adams is a good quick read. Interesting characters, fun storyline and a nice dose of spice and steam. I am posting an honest review after reading an ARC copy of this book.
