Customer Reviews

When Kathy-jo Wargin was a young girl, each night after dinner, her mother let her choose between washing the dishes or writing a poem. Before long, she decided that if she grew up to be a writer, she wouldn’t have to do any dishes. She has since learned that even though she has published more than twenty award-winning books for children, she still has to wash the dishes. Kathy-jo lives in Minnesota with her husband and her son. Go to her website www.kathy-jowargin.com As a child, Richard Johnson was always happiest with a pencil and a scrap of paper to scribble on. He decided to pursue his passion for art and went on to study illustration at Loughborough University of Art and Design. Some of the books he has worked on include Aesop's Fables, If Elephants Wore Trousers, Around the World in Eighty Tales, The Peter Pan Jigsaw Book, and his own story, My Grandpa's Amazing Inventions. Richard currently lives in Lincolnshire, England.

Wonderful book. I am using it with my pre-k and kindergarten Sunday school class. This past week we did a class hand print painted evergreen tree. Letter E. This week we are making bird feeders for B. And I plan on making cookies for the soup kitchen for letter C. The pictures I take of them doing the projects will decorate our ever green. Lots of great ideas and ways to share Gods love.

Cute winter alphabet book from A to Z!

Such a wonderful book to share with youngsters. Toddlers to early Elementary will enjoy this!

Great book

Beautiful book received as described.

Charming illustrations and quick moving text that follows the pictures (important for prereaders) help little ones to understand that wonders of the seasons are blessings.

Kathy Jo has a series of four books for the four seasons. A to Z with memories and things to be thankful for.

Bright, fun illustrations in this book! We checked it out from our local library; my preschooler is learning the letter S this week! I enjoyed the rhyme/flow of the book a lot. Lots of mentions of God (almost every page).
