Ana Martiņaga was born in San Sebastian and grew up in the countryside of Castilla, together with four siblings and lots of cousins. As a child her favorite pastime was to climb almond trees because it is fun and afterwards you can eat the almonds. She studied Fine Arts in Salamanca but only decided to become an illustrator after a Summer School with the Spanish illustrator Asun Balzola. Ana spent seven years in the UK, and also a while in New York. Now she lives with her little family in Germany. She likes swimming in summer and sledding in winter.

Good quality. My little girl loves finding the pieces and tucking them in to the correct slot. Love that the pieces are attached!

Very cute and sturdy.

I love these interactive books! Had purchased the Goodnight Babies one in a small local toy shop on vacation and had been hunting for more as my daughter loves it so much. Quality is great and rhyming text is so sweet! Definitely recommend for anyone who has a little one that loves interactive books.
