Bill VanPatten is Professor and Director of Applied Linguistics and Second Language Studies at Texas Tech University. His areas of research are input and input processing in second language acquisition and the effects of formal instruction on acquisitional processes. He has published widely in the fields of second language acquisition and language teaching and is a frequent conference speaker and presenter. His publications include Making Communicative Language Teaching Happen (with James F. Lee, 2003, McGraw-Hill), From Input to Output: A Teacher's Guide to Second Language Acquisition (2003, McGraw-Hill), Processing Instruction: Theory, Research, and Practice (2004, Lawrence Erlbaum Associates) and most recently, Theories in Second Language Acquisition: An Introduction (with Jessica Williams, 2007, Lawrence Erlbaum Associates). He is the lead author of Vistazos, ¿Sabías? - as que...?, Destinos and Sol y viento. Dr. VanPatten is the 2007 recipient of the Anthony Papalia Award for Excellence in Teacher Education, awarded jointly by ACTFL and NYSAFLT. When not engaged in academic activities, he writes fiction and performs stand-up comedy. He has recently published his first work of fiction, a collection of short stories titled Chicago Tales, published by Outskirts Press (2007).

Excellent method. This series and all the materials are really unsurpassed. I watched the series right thru a couple times as it was quite entertaining and all of the materials (Book, both workbooks and accompanying workbooks) were without a doubt effective.

I bought these used from an seller. They appear to be in good order. You definitely will want the CDs to go with both of the workbooks and the CDs that go with the text. The audios and CDs are components that really set Destinos apart from other learning systems. You are not just mindlessly repeating words, sentences, and phrases as you would be in the knock-offs from the 60s Foreign Service Learning course. You will learn by watching and responding to a lawyer solving a mystery.

good supplement to DESTINOS text book as was the CD program for lessons 1 - 26

I am enjoying the Destinos tapes in combination with my on-going Spanish classes. Because I have very little time to study outside of my classes, I have found that listening to the the tapes while driving helps my comprehension and furthers the "immersion" process. I am able to pick up the cadence of the language and each time I listen to the tapes I comprehend more and more.
