Customer Reviews

The book was very enlightening. It gave a wealth of information not only on the hot spots to see and things to do but also has information regarding travel safety, best times to go and even gives suggestions of itineraries to help plan out your trip. I loved that it covered so many of the places we would be visiting and even provided links to many of the suggested places to visit. Great buy!

Definite must read before going to Scandinavia!

This book is self published and it shows. There is a certain charm to the way 400 years of history is summed up in one sentence saying something like "somehow the city regained its spirit in 1808" or the goofy discussion of Icelandic drinking water (I think it's safe but smells like sulfur?) but the gaps in reliable info mean I will be buying another book--published in 2015 by Rick Steves.

Interesting facts and information for travel

Poorly written without very much meaningful information. Don't waste your money on this guide.

Does not give any history or background of the historic places. Good only for restaurant and important places to be visited .
