Mom's Family Desk Planner Calendar 2018

Synopsis

For moms on the go (and what mom isn't?), Mom's Family Desk Planner is the portable personal assistant that goes from desktop to tote bag to purse. The roomy weekly write-in grids, with one column for Mom and one column for the rest of the family, keep schedules straight so that no appointments, games, or meetings fall by the wayside. On the left hand page of each spread is a colorful Boynton illustration. 17-month planner begins August 2017. Wire-o binding for ease of use, plus storage pockets, perforated grocery and to-do lists, and full-color stickers.

I get this every year, fun and functional

My favorite calendar each year. Had used wall calendar and switched to book style and love it.

This is my 4th planner--won't have any other. The tear-out to-do lists at the back really keep me on track!

Fun way to keep your family organized!

Lovely!!

I've purchased every year since about 2012. The "mom" and "family" columns are so helpful to keep everything organized and neat. I always buy the wall calendar too, and my family has learned to adapt to the needs of my matriarchal rules. I always use a Sharpie pen and have no trouble with carbon copy, a ball point pen will leave marks on the next page. It's pretty bulky, I'd prefer a 12 month planner over 18, but I find it super helpful to start with the school year! Happy planning!

I've purchased this planner for several years in a row so obviously I like it. I only wish there were more labeled stickers instead of all the character stickers. As a busy Mom the only use I have for those is to give them to my kids.

I love this planner. I do use bookmarks and paper clips with it. Lots of stickers! I typically use a marker so I don't get that "carbon copy" on the next page. Lots of room.
