Both my kids are taking piano and the mandatory reference materials are all Piano Adventures. This particular product was a great package deal, all but one was needed but the extra was a bonus!

Bought these based on piano teacher's instructions. My daughter started with Fabers My first piano adventures for the young beginner (yellow book) and she has progressed to Level 1 books (red). I have come to love how the books are structured starting with beginner level. Highly recommend all the Faber piano adventures books.

The music teacher picked this piano learning series. From my perspective it looks nice and quality is good it's my daughter first piano books. She loves it so much. It's easy to read and interesting.

For the average piano student, ages 5-12, these books are the best.

Shipped fast and as described.

We bought this because it was required by the piano school. Overall, great set for beginners. Our pianist is 8 years old and she mentioned that the lessons are very easy to follow. We are looking forward to progressing to level 2.

My 7 years old love it.
