I think everybody in the family loved this book. Even the little kid we bought it for. One of our grandson's is not a "hugger". So his parents says he can just shake hands, and nobody insists. This book is just perfect for little people who do not want to be swallowed even by loving swoops of relatives. This book is full of respect, affection, humor, and really cheerful children and animals.

Positive, upbeat, happy and fun to read. A lovely book for all ages young and old alike. Share it with someone you love. A cute gift for Valentine's day with no hidden romantic agenda. Would recommend to anyone.

This was the first book she wanted read to her on Christmas Eve.

My granddaughters don't always want to get hugs, and have been educated on what is a good or bad hug. I wanted to reinforce those feelings by letting them read it in a book

Read this with my granddaughter who enjoyed the story so we read it several time. Nice pictures. She found the story entertaining.

Great for teaching small children about boundaries. It is a great tool for therapy for children who may have been abused.

very sweet!
