Downfall (Matt Foley/Sara Bradford Series Book 3)

Synopsis

Chief of Police Matt Foley has a new bride and the most complex case of his career. A prominent couple prepares to retire, when an assassin's bullets retires them permanently. And he doesn't stop there. As the investigation pushes forward, layers of deceit, greed, and bitterness are peeled away, and two families, connected by marriage and murder, face the exposure of their darkest secrets. It's just another difficult case until Matt finds his wife caught in the killer's cross-hairs.

Customer Reviews

I had a little trouble keeping up with this one..I think my family is to blame. Too many interruptions and too little time to read!But I sure do enjoy a nice clean mystery where it's not dripping with over the top Bible thumping. I love the Word but some Christian novelists are a bit over the top with it, to the point of the story not being realistic. Not this author. The faith is quietly lived thru the characters

..as life should be :)

Such an enjoyable read! It featured all my favorites: mysterious and senseless crime, interesting and believable characters, intelligent investigations and good people striving to live in the spirit of "love thy neighbor" . I'll be reading all this author has to offer!

Police Chief Matt and Sara in this Book 3 are now married. It is cold weather in Texas when Matt gets the call that there had been a murder of a man and his wife. Many things begin to happen swiftly. This is another book I couldn't put down. I hope there is a book 4.

Didn't read the first two books but I thoroughly enjoyed this book. I like 'reading Christian author's. Good characters and good story.

This series is a must read. You will not be disappointed. Keep me on my toes with the suspense. Really wish there was another book

Another good read from one of my favorite Christian authors. I'm looking forward to next book (Missing) in this series.

Wonderful series! The characters are so believable, its like reading a letter about people you know. But, it really needs a good editor.

V B Tenery really did keep my interest during all three books... I had to keep reading until the end. Matt was a great hero...just the kind you could believe would really be able to accomplish anything he had thrown at him. Loved that so many found their Happy Endings.
