The book starts with a number of questions kids have about God and creation then answers are given based on scriptural truths but is written as if God is answering. I felt the number of questions could have been shorter - it dragged on a bit. Loved the answer section especially how He didn't need magic or tricks to make the world =) Overall, pleased... and artwork is great.

This book is full of cheerful eye-grabbing illustrations, and fun rhymes. It opens with questions children ask about the world and how God made it, and follows with a warm conversational response "from God" to answer each question. Although the God talk is simplified and made to rhyme, (keeping little ones enchanted and understanding,) each phrase's message is straight from the Bible. The end of the book breaks down each God rhyme with the actual verses from Scripture, where He originally and perfectly said it. For example (pg. 42 and 65): "How many days did it take me? Just six! I did not need magic or use any tricks." "In six days the Lord made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and everything in them; but on the seventh day He rested. Exodus 20:11 By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen. Hebrews 11:3 I believe God really did create the earth, the universe, and everything else in 6 days, and this book is a wonderful way for me to share that conviction with my toddler.

Wonderful book with beautiful yet simple pictures that truly captures what is being stated on each page. I have ordered Little Blessing books for all of my grandchildren and they still enjoy them.

This book is absolutely amazing and packs in so much theology in just a few pages! I was totally blown away! And best of all, at the end of the book, they list all the Bible passages to explain where the theology comes from for further discussion with your child!

love this book. We read a page every morning before breakfast. Is good length for preschooler.

We love this book! I have two children (4 and 2) who are filled with questions. The beginning asks many questions which are answered in the second section of the book. Its a perfect bedtime book with its calming pictures and quiet verse. I appreciate having the bible verse references in the back. My son, Adam, enjoys Genesis so we read this book often.

My 2 year old loves this book. She answers all the questions and wants to read it several times. This is a great book to start your child's Christian foundation!

Bought this as a Christmas gift for my two and a half year old grandson. He loves it and works perfectly as a bedtime story and introduction to God's creation.
