Customer Reviews

A well written, sweet romance with the start of a marriage for the wrong reason thanks to a relative concerned with money. This author never fails to entertain.

This was a sweet romance and a new beginning. I thoroughly enjoyed the plot and the revealing of love. The people in the book are alive with many feelings due to what happens.

I enjoyed reading this story. The characters seemed believable, and i really liked the way they learned to trust each other in spite of their circumstances.

I really enjoyed this book, I only wish it were longer. A great story of how God can made a bad situation good for those who believe in Him!RHONDA

The story was rather short but interesting. However, it desperately needs major editing, especially the last half of this book.

Sweet story, but too short. Progressed too fast from not knowing each other to being happily married. Otherwise, good story.

We need to trust God in everything we say and do everyday. God can see our future and want the best for us.

You begin with anticipation but are left with a big "HUH?" The end of it leaves you wondering about what happens with the rest of their lives.
