Customer Reviews

An amazing collection of photos, maps and information about Rome churches and art...I am not a knowledgeable source on art, but the church images and descriptions are thorough and interesting. The guide was written for a Jubilee or holy year, and although printed 16 years ago, Pope Francis has provided another special year to give this more relevance.

This book is amazing. Rome has so much to offer and this book gives you a small taste.

Awesome book - wonderful colored pictures and amazing maps. Highly recommended

This is a very nice book on Rome! It's filled with wonderful pictures! If you love Rome, you'll want this book!

This Jubilee Edition of Art and History of Rome is much expanded and improved over the last one I bought eight years ago. There are many more pictures, although perforce smaller, and it's well organized by districts of the city as well as the major section devoted to the beautifully spiffed up religious sites. They've taken a page from Dorling Kindersley's guides by adding street-by-street views with little buildings drawn in. Also added are detailed sidebars of relevant historical information to put the sights in context. Overall, a very handsome and worthwhile book for prospective or recent visitors to Rome.
