This is a quick overview of the Bible that is very similar to Stephen M. Miller's "Complete Guide to the Bible." (2008) The pictures and the format are very similar, except Miller's book was earlier and more jammed packed and not as "preachy" as this book!

This is a simple, easy-to-understand overview of the Bible, showing the main points and themes of each book how they fit so beautifully together into God's plan for salvation. This is a good resource for both anyone new to the study of God's Word and for those who just need a handy reference tool or class handout. As in all Rose resources, the pages are nicely done with lots of detail and color.

This is a great resource for Bible study. I love the way the information is organized and the inclusion of key verses for each book. I would definitely recommend this as a springboard for further study.

Thank You!

Beautifully done.
