As a collector of Breyer models since the age of 8, I am now a dealer of Vintage Breyer products. Until this book came along, trying to find information about the variations of each model, years run, and general range of value was frustrating, to say the least. This book is an answer to any serious collector's prayers. Very easy to read, the information is neatly organized and there are color photos for each item, with fairly accurate guesstimates of each item's value. Unfortunately though, there were 5 editions made of this guide and they are all no longer in print; available only as used books or as downloadable e-books from the publishing company.

Are you a model horse nut? An acetate equine aficionado? Or just discovered a box o' Breyers in the attic and don't know what you have? Whether you're a model horse pro or just getting started, here's a wise choice for your library. Encyclopedic, it's not -- easy and fun to use, it is. Combining the usability of a quick-reference guide with the thoroughness of a catalog, Felicia Browell has created a great tool for collectors of these beautiful model horses and animals. It's a convenient size with intuitive layout, allowing you to locate a model quickly. Color photos eliminate confusion over marking and coloring variations. Price guidelines are sound. Browell also provides helpful cross-reference lists based on model number, name, even year. With book in hand, bid with confidence on those Internet auction pages! If you want a practical Breyer reference that's complete but doesn't require a trailer hitch, put your money on this one. H. R. Hastings -- Dallas, Texas

Got this for someone who has collected some Breyer Horses and wanted to see what some of them are worth. He has found several that he has in the book. It is very detailed.

The book was a little more ragged than what I was expected. But it was delivered on time so all is good.

Wonderful Book, if you are a Breyer Fan....GET THIS BOOK!Two Thumbs Up

Informative guide at a reasonable price. Fast delivery and great service Bought this for my mom and she LOVED it. She's been collecting Breyers for YEARS.

Some kid wrote all over this book inside. The spine was broken and there were pages missing.
