Tale Of A Mad Dog : Wrestling Legend Buzz Sawyer

Synopsis

Buzz Sawyer was considered one of the most athletically gifted wrestlers to campaign in the 1980s. Opinions vary on the man as most of the wrestlers who worked with him did not have a flattering assessment of his personality or character. All would concede, however, that he was a genuine bad ass in an era of tough guys. What was undeniable was his charisma and ability to entertain in one of wrestling's Golden eras. Buzz Sawyer would be one of the most popular wrestlers on the Georgia circuit whose time was cut short by alcoholism and drug use.

Customer Reviews

Total waste of money. Author didn't even get a few names correct. No detail. Do not waste your time or your money. If I could have given it zero stars, I would have.

Not bad for something that maybe took the author an hour to write.. mostly Cornette stories from his podcast. Not really worth the $..

This can be read in about 15-20 minutes hence why I gave it two stars. It doesn't really go in depth about Buzz Sawyer who I was wanting to learn more about. It felt very much like a Wikipedia article. The information that is in there is useful if you know nothing about him but this "tale" will leave you wanting more.

What a lousy book ! A total waste of time and energy. Don't waste your time reading this stupid garbage.
